Collect of the Day

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray: Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

The people sit.

First Reading

Joel 2:23-32

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame. Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit. I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Psalm 65      You Crown the Year with Your Goodness      Robert Hawthorne

You crown the year with your good-ness, and your paths o-ver flow with plen - ty.

- A 1 You are to be praised...O God in [Zion];*
to you shall vows be performed in Je-[rusalem].
- B 2 To you that hear prayer shall all flesh [come],* because of their trans-[gressions].
- A 3 Our sins are stronger than [we] are.*
but you will blot them [out].
- B 4 Happy are they whom you choose to draw to your courts to [dwell] there!*
they will be satisfied by the holiness of your [tem]-ple. Antiphon
- A 5 Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness...
O God of our sal-[va]-tion,*
O Hope of all the ends of the [earth].
- B 6 You make fast the mountains by your [power]:*
they are girded about with [might].
- A 7 You still the roaring of the [seas],*
the roaring of the waves.... and the clamor of the [peo]-ples.
- B 8 Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your [marvelous] signs:*
you make the dawn and dusk to sing for [joy]. Antiphon

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ. † forehead, † mouth, † heart

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

The Rev. Stacy Walker

The people stand as they are able for the reciting of the Nicene Creed.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Deacon: Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence may be kept

All: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

If God is Building When We Build

arr. John Barnard

If God is building when we build, the house we raise will stand;
If God designs when we design, his skill is in our hand.
If God is working when we work, to make the things we make;
He gives approval and success to labour for his sake.
If God is speaking when we speak, our words become His word,
And in our speech of everyday, eternal things are heard.
If God is building, when we build, we call each work our own,
Though not for us to praise ourselves and praise is God alone! Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 2

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we say:

Organ All sing

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na, Ho-san-na, Ho-san-na — in the high - est. Bless - ed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na, Ho-san-na, Ho-san-na — in the high - est!

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant: Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

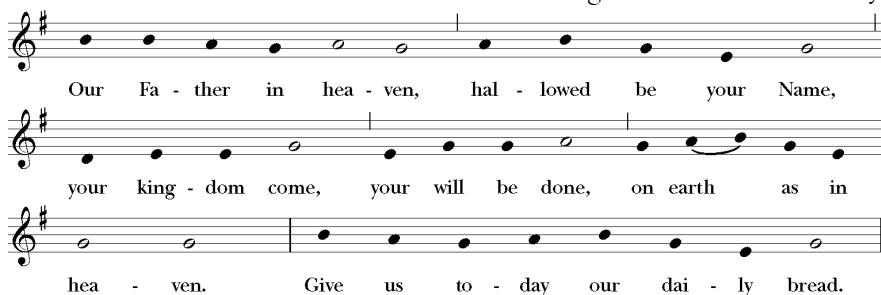

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

What does St. Charles Episcopal Church mean to you?

"To me, SCEC is my faith home where I gather with friends to worship, grow in faith and serve the community. Let me tell you a quick story. One of a number of our ministries is with Hesed House homeless shelter. SCEC has served there 35+ years. Once when we were serving breakfast, one of the guests, Robert, came up and thanked us. He said he'd seen when other organizations weren't able to serve on their shift, and the guests went without a hot meal, so he sincerely appreciated what we did. With God's help, SCEC is making a difference in the world. That's just one of many reasons why I have worshiped, served and pledged here for 28 years."--Bo Smith

We are an active church, with so many giving of their time, talent and treasure, and all of these are important. The Lord teaches us that we live in a world of abundance.

We have now off our "This is our Home" stewardship drive. Many of our parishioners have become like brothers and sisters--family to us. How do you treat your home and family? You cherish them and protect them. These are challenging times for the church with further repairs to our roof, etc. needed, so the church needs your help.

From now through Nov. 6th, you will hear stories from your friends about what SCEC means to them and why they pledge. If you already pledge, we sincerely thank you. If you could see fit to give a little bit more, it would be appreciated. If you're currently not pledging or are new we could really use your support. Please watch for a letter from the church in the mail with more information.

Questions? Reach out to the stewardship committee:

Carol Lynn Foster, Melinda Oakey, Chris Robinson and Bo Smith.

Household Prayer: Morning

God of light,
thank you for another day.
With each hour, may I be watchful for signs of your grace, ready to show your love, and eager to tell the good news of Jesus Christ.
Make me more faithful than I was yesterday, and lead me in the paths
of righteousness.
Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Thank you for the challenges and blessing of this day, O God.
If I kept faith with you,
thank you for your Spirit's help.
If I looked away from you,
turn me back around.
As night falls, I relinquish my pride and my fear and entrust all whom I love to your care,
with prayers for a peaceful rest;
in Jesus' name.
Amen.
